The regular weekly devotional and business meeting of the W. C. T. U. was held A house-warming will be held at St. Rose's Industrial School, 2023 G street, on yesterday afternoon in the rooms of the Central Mission, 930 Pennsylvania avenue Wednesday afternoon and evening, Apr. 20, from 2 to 6 and 7 to 10, in connection with which will be held "Un Marche Aux northwest, and was largely attended. Mrs. M. E. Cohen presided, and Mrs. L. E. with which will be held "Un Marche Aux Fleurs et Aux Legumes." This institution has just been calarged by the addition of a new adjoining building. The Sisters of Charlity are in charge of the good work of teaching girls dressmaking, plain sewing, &c.; also useful work in the kitchen and laundry. All these departments will be open for inspection, and those who are now in attendance at the school will be seen at work. The market on the first floor will be conducted under the auspices of the following patronesses: Mms. Bounparte, Mesdames Wilson, Redferen, and Febiger, Misses Bancroft, Riggs, and West. In the market will be sold a variety of articles, and the young ladies who are to assist will wear the costumes of French peasunts Among these young ladies will be Misses Beach, Mattle Mitchell, Daisy Ricketts, Lefia Johnson, Redfern, Audenreid, Rebecca Dodge, Bancroft, Wallack, Stith, and Sallie Loring. The processes of the entertatment will be for the benefit of the home. M. E. Cohen presided, and Mrs. L. E.
Dean officiated as secretary. Interesting reports of missionary work at the jail were made by Mesdames Barber, Hendrickson, and Foster, after which the secretary and treasurer made their reports. Mrs. La Fetra read a letter from Mrs. E. M. Blake, of Michigan, giving an account of the

During the comment which followed Mrs. Cohen exhibited a patented device resembling and made to imitate a Malaga grape, which contains wine or other intexticating liquor, and remarked upon the many devices which were used to disseminate the seeds of an inextinguishable thirst for liquor.

A letter addressed to Justice Hagner was read and indorsed by the union, which urged that official to call the attention of the grand jury to the many unlicensel saloons and the gambling houses, pool rooms, and houses of prostitution existing in this city.

Mrs. Cohen hereupon discovered Mr. H. B. Moulton seated in the rear of the room, and, on motion, the union invited him to address the meeting, which he did in an elequent manner.

It was announced that Mrs. Darwin R. James would address the meeting of the union at the "Hope and Heip" rooms this afternoon, after which Mrs. Pope sang a solo and the meeting adjourned.

LIKELY TO BE SELECTED. The Warehouse of Mr. Smith for Distriet Official Quarters.

Though not anthoritatively announced by the commissioners it is believed, however that T. W. Smith's warehouse will be ac cepted for District quarters. The building is near the corner of First street and In lians avenue, four stories high, and con tains about 28,000 feet of floor space, which is double the amount now used by the Dia-trict officials. Mr. Smith has offered his initiding for rent by the year, on condition that the commissioners occupy it until Congress makes an appropriation for a new District building. Union has commenced work in a new field—they are praying for Mr. Daniel E. Cahill, they are praying for Mr. Daniel E. Cahill, who has been conspicuously engaged in defending the saloon keepers who have violated the liquor laws. Mrs. Rebeca Jones, who writes on behalf of this union, informed him that he had "long been the prayerful subject of this union," and invoked his aid, "not to protect these moral lepers, but to crush them," and closed by saying "for you our prayers shall ever ascend."

Mr. Cahill replied, and informed them that he relied upon his profession for his livelihood, and offered for a guarantee of $5,000 annually to refrain from defending such cases.

Overtime Not Counted. Some Navy Department clerks have been in the habit of siriving earlier than 9 and re-maining later than 4 o'clock, as a means of stawing their interest in the work since the 8se retary's order requiring the marking of tardy clerks. This extra time has been recorded along with the tardy account that has been kept. The Secretary upon learning this has ordered that record of overtime should not be kept, as his object is only to require punctuality and not to get extra work from the force.

"Herto" we heard one man say to another, the other day. "I didn't know you at first, why you look ten years younger than you did when I saw you last." "I feel ten years younger," was the reply. "You know I used to be under the weather all the time and gave up expecting to be any better. The doctor said I had consumption. I was torribly weak, had night sweats, cough, no appetite, and lost fieth. I saw Dr. Pierco's Golden Medical Discovery advertised, and thought it would do no harm if it did no good. It has cured me. I am a new man because I am a well one."

Living on the Reputation of Others.
"Take everything I have but my good name; leave me that and I am content." So said the philosopher. So say all manufacturers of genuine articles to that horde of imitators which thrives upon the reputation of others. The good name of Allcock's Porous Plasters has in-duced many adventurers to put in the market imitations that are not only lacking in the best elements of the genuine article, but are often harmful in their effects. This is not only theft, but might well be called malpractice. Such a thing ought not to be. The public should be warned against these frauds, and, when an ex-ternal remedy is needed, be sure to insist upon having Allocok's Porous Plaster.
